

I oppose allowing further consolidation of ownership in broadcast media. The current ownership rules are appropriate and need to be maintained as they stand in order to best serve the public.